

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

---

Donald Rakestraw is University College Professor of American Studies at Winthrop University. He received his PhD in U.S. Diplomatic History from the University of Alabama in 1991 and is the author of a number of books and articles on nineteenth century U.S. foreign relations including, For Honor or Destiny: The Anglo –American Crisis over the Oregon Territory (New York: Peter Lang, 1995) and, with Howard Jones, Prologue to Manifest Destiny: Anglo-American Relations in the 1840s (Wilmington, DE: Scholarly Resources, 1997). He is author and contributing editor to “Civil War Diplomacy,” in Robert L Beisner, ed., American Foreign Relations since 1600: A Guide to the Literature (Santa Barbara, CA: ABC -CLIO, 2003, online editions, 2007-). Professor Rakestraw has conducted seminars and presented lectures on the history of Anglo-American relations in both the United States and the United Kingdom. He is currently writing a biography of Daniel Webster, diplomatist.