

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Edward S. Alexander (University of Illinois) has worked as a historian and park ranger at Pamplin Historical Park and Richmond National Battlefield Park and is on the board of directors of the Petersburg Battlefields Foundation. His first book, Dawn of Victory: Breakthrough at Petersburg was published in 2015 by Savas Beatie. He is a contributing member of Emerging Civil War, serves as editor of the Emerging Civil War Digital Shorts, and is a freelance cartographer. He resides in Richmond, Virginia.