

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Richard G. Williams, Jr. writes about Virginia history and the War Between the States. Williams has written for numerous print publications and is the author of 5 books, including The Maxims of Robert E. Lee for Young Gentlemen, Stonewall Jackson: The Black Man's Friend, Lexington, Virginia and the Civil War and the Battle of Waynesboro. Williams is also a contributing editor for Western and Eastern treasures Magazine.

Williams also co-produced a documentary about the life of Stonewall Jackson: Still Standing: The Stonewall Jackson Story. The film premiered at West Virginia University's Jackson's Mill in 2007. He serves on the board of trustees for the National Civil War Chaplains Museum in Lynchburg, Virginia and on the board of directors for the Waynesboro Heritage Foundation. He is also a contributing editor for Western & Eastern Treasures Magazine. Williams lives with his family in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley.