

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Dr. Laura June Davis (Columbus State University) is a Civil War naval historian and award-winning instructor. Her current manuscript project focuses on sabotage, irregular naval warfare, and masculinity during the Civil War, a preview of which can be found in The Guerrilla Hunters: Irregular Conflicts during the Civil War edited by Brian Matthew Jordan and Barton Myers (LSU Press, 2018). Her research and teaching have been featured on C-SPAN, in Smithsonian Magazine, and in Age of Revolutions. She also sits on the Board of the National Civil War Naval Museum.