

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Ethan J. Kytte (California State University, Fresno) is a professor who specializes in the history of slavery, abolition, the Civil War, Reconstruction, and southern memory. He is the author of Romantic Reformers in the Antislavery Struggle in the Civil War Era (Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press, 2014) and coauthor, with Blain Roberts, of Denmark Vesey's Garden: Slavery and Memory in the Cradle of the Confederacy (New York: The New Press, 2018). His work has also appeared in the Journal of Southern History, American Nineteenth Century History, the Civil War Monitor, the New York Times, the Washington Post, and the Atlantic.