

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Ian Delahanty received his Ph.D. from Boston College in 2013. His research examines how Irish immigrants' connections with Ireland shaped their views on slavery and the Union in the Civil War Era. For this project, he draws from the correspondence and diaries of scores of Irish-American Union soldiers held at archives in Ireland and throughout the United States.