

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Barbara A. Gannon is currently an assistant professor of history at the University of Central Florida. She received her B.A. from Emory University in Atlanta, an M.A. from George Washington University in Washington DC, and a PhD from Penn State University. She is the author of The Won Cause: Black and White Comradeship in the Grand Army of the Republic (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2011), an examination of the black and white members of the Union Army's largest veterans' organization. This book received the Wiley-Silver Prize (University of Mississippi) for the best first book on the Civil War, was recognized with an honorable mention by the Lincoln Prize Committee 2012 (Gilder Lehrman Institute), and was a finalist for the Jefferson Davis Prize (Museum of the Confederacy). She is currently working on two separate studies; one surveys Civil War memory, and the other examines American veterans.
