

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

---

Shae Smith Cox is an Assistant Professor of History at Texas A&M University. She studies 19th-century race and gender, emphasizing material culture and memory of the U.S. Civil War and Reconstruction. Shae is actively involved in the Early Career Committee for the Society for Civil War Historians. She published a chapter titled, “Outfitting the Lost Cause: The Recreation of Memory, Identity, and Southern Sectionalism through Civil War Uniforms, 1865-1920s,” in Buying and Selling Civil War Memory in Gilded Age America, in 2021. LSU Press published her first book The Fabric of Civil War Society: Uniforms, Badges, and Flags, 1859-1939, in February 2024.