

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Phillip S. Greenwalt is co-founder of Emerging Revolutionary War and a full-time contributor to Emerging Civil War. He is the author or co-author of five books on the American Revolution and the American Civil War. Phillip graduated with a degree in history from Wheeling Jesuit University and earned a graduate degree in American history from George Mason University. He is currently a Supervisory Park Ranger in Interpretation and Visitor Services at Everglades National Park. Prior to his current position Phillip spent seven years as historian at George Washington Birthplace National Monument and Thomas Stone National Historic Site. He has also served in work details to Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania National Military Park, Appomattox Court House National Historical Park, Fort McHenry National Monument and Historic Shrine, Cedar Creek and Belle Grove National Historical Park, Morristown National Historical Park, and De Soto National Memorial throughout his National Park Service career.