

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Bjorn Skaptason (Abraham Lincoln Book Shop) is a public historian who works in the rare book and artifact trade. He has worked and volunteered with the National Park Service and developed and presented hundreds of hours of battlefield programming. He has published essays about Ambrose Bierce, The United States Colored Troops in West Tennessee, and the Chicago Light Artillery in the Civil War. He has a master's degree from Loyola University Chicago and lives in Chicago.

.