

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

William B. Kurtz is an assistant editor at Documents Compass, a program of the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Virginia (2012) where he studied under Dr. Gary W. Gallagher. He has written several articles and given many conference papers on the effect of the Civil War on American Catholics. His book, Excommunicated from the Union: How the Civil War Created a Separate Catholic America, is forthcoming from Fordham University Press in Fall 2015.
