

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

David Goldfield, author or editor of sixteen books on Southern and American history, is the Robert Lee Bailey Professor of History at the University of North Carolina, Charlotte. He also serves as Editor of the Journal of Urban History and works as an Academic Specialist for the U.S. State Department. Goldfield is a consultant to history museums, filmmakers, and government agencies on various aspects of American history, particularly with respect to race, ethnicity, and religion.