

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

---

Eric W. Buckland (University of Kansas) is a retired Army Lieutenant Colonel who spent most of his 22-year military career in Special Forces. Some of his military awards include: the Ranger and Special Forces Tabs, Master Parachutist Badge, the Special Operations Combat Diver Badge and the Combat Infantryman's Badge. He has written five books on some of the men who were members of the famed 43rd Battalion Virginia Cavalry – “Mosby's Rangers” during the War Between the States. Since 2001, he has been a Policy Analyst with the Office of National Drug Control Policy in Washington, D.C.