

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

---

Kent Masterson Brown (Washington & Lee University) is the author of several books and numerous articles for scholarly historical journals on the Civil War. He was the creator and editor of the national magazine, The Civil War. He is presently writing another major study on the Gettysburg campaign entitled, General George Gordon Meade and the Gettysburg Campaign, for the University of North Carolina Press to be published in 2014. He regularly leads Civil War battlefield tours and is a highly-sought-after speaker, lecturing on Civil War history all across the nation. As President and Content Developer for Witnessing History (<http://witnessinghistoryonline.com/>) Mr. Brown has also written, hosted and produced DVD documentaries on the Civil War which are being distributed to schools from coast to coast for use in their social studies curriculum. Mr. Brown was the first Chairman of the Gettysburg National Military Park Advisory Commission and first Chairman of the Perryville Battlefield Commission. Mr. Brown was a member of the Kentucky Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission and is now a member of the Board of Directors of the Gettysburg Foundation. He has been given numerous awards for his work in Civil War history as well as historic preservation. Mr. Brown lives in Lexington, Kentucky, with his wife, Genevieve, and their children, Annie Louise, Philip and Thomas.